G1 All American Derby
Ruidoso Downs Race 10
Post 6:44 pm ET / 4:44 pm MT

*10-fastest qualifiers in trials held
August 20 at Ruidoso Downs.*

1-DUPONTE (7-2): Romped by 2 ½ lengths in 12th of 13 trials in posting 2nd-fastest qualifying time (21.441). Winner of Remington Park's G1 Heritage Place Futurity at 2. One of two qualifiers for trainer Jimmy Padgett and jockey Rodrigo Vallejo (also Hold Air Hostage).

2- ELICITY (8-1): Tied for the 8th-fastest qualifying time at 21.626, but was absolutely no match for Hold Air Hostage in their trial. One of 3 fillies in this year's final. Trainer Juan Aleman won this race in 2015 and managed the exceptional careers of both the sire and dam. 2x AAD-winning rider Esgar Ramirez swept last year's Derby & Futurity.

3-MYST FIT (9-2): One of 2 qualifiers for trainer Trey Wood and jockey Ricky Ramirez (other One Sweet Racy). Time of 21.561 was good for 6th-fastest qualifier when breaking well and holding off Machismo Moon. Oklahoma Derby winner has won 5 of 9, but disappointed with dull effort in Rainbow Derby final.

4-DE LA EAGLE (15-1): Third-fastest qualifier (21.444) was half-length winner of trial 9 of 13, outgunning The Marfa Lights, who qualified fourth-fastest. One of two qualifiers for trainer Juan Gonzalez and jockey Tanner Thedford (other Magestic Eagle). He's 7-10 in the exacta and a reliable sort.

5-THE MARFA LIGHTS (6-1): Runner-up by half-length to De La Eagle in 9th of 13 trials while posting fourth-fastest qualifying time (21.501). My top pick in last year's All American Futurity when runner-up. Impeccably bred sort has been on the cusp without signature score.

6-MAGESTIC EAGLE (15-1): Tied for 10th-fastest qualifying time (21.646) and won a random "shake" vs. last year's All American Futurity victor Imperial Eagle to get the final finals' berth. One of two qualifiers for trainer Juan Gonzalez and jockey Tanner Thedford (other De La Eagle). Just 1-for-10 and was no match for Hold Air Hostage when third in the trials.

7-HOLD AIR HOSTAGE (2-1): G1 Rainbow Derby winner was All American Derby's fastest qualifier at 21.109 in 11th of 13 trials. Powered home by whopping 3 ½ lengths in trial after being supplemented for $50,000. One of two qualifiers for trainer Jimmy Padgett and jockey Rodrigo Vallejo (also Duponte). The Heritage Place Derby and Rainbow Derby winner is the one to beat.

8-BELLISSIMA CHOCOLATA (30-1): Notably was only of the 10 qualifiers not to reach the final via the day's last 5 heats. She won the third of 12 trials when the conditions were not as fast, running 21.626 (tied for 8th-fastest). One of 3 fillies in this year's final. Regally bred $300k purchase by Valiant Hero, who already has an All American Derby winner at stud, out of All American Futurity winner & Derby 2nd Heartswideopen.

9-ONE SWEET RACY (12-1): One of 2 qualifiers for trainer Trey Wood and jockey Ricky Ramirez (other Myst Fit). Qualified fifth-fastest (21.509) when 3rd to De La Eagle. One of 3 fillies in final, but just 1-8.

10-MACHISMO MOON (20-1): Seventh-fastest qualifier (21.624) when second to Myst Fit in trials. NM-bred overcame sluggish start and may have benefitted from a good rail.

RUIDOSO DOWNS, NEW MEXICO

Weekend AQHA Stakes Extras

All American Gold Cup / Sunday Rui-8

The $200,000 Gold Cup matches 10 top older horses over 440 yards and highlights the Sunday Derby Day undercard. BODACIOUS EAGLE comes into the Gold Cup in much better form than a year ago when unable to handle ZOOMIN EFFORTLESSLY. He could be Mr. Right Now at a solid 9-2 morning line offering. The outside runner JESSIES FIRST DOWN could make for a big showdown wide on the track with the likely favorite ZOOMIN EFFORTLESSLY farther from the fray. The play: Win #8.

Jeremy Plonk's All American Gold Cup Picks:

Win 8-Bodacious Eagle
Place 10-Jessies First Down
Show 4-Zoomin Effortlessly
Fourth 6-First Valiant Sign

Weekend AQHA Stakes Extras

All American Juvenile / Monday Rui-8

The consolation event to the All American Futurity is the $200,000 All American Juvenile. Tab the results of this race to give you some insight as to how strong some of the AAF finalists' trials were. JESSE LANE just missed in 2 straight vs. Hes Limitless and Bigg Daddy. TRACE DYNASTY has the most finals experience, having run second in the Heritage Place Futurity this spring at Remington Park. MY SOUTHERN DYNASTY exits a big trial. The play: Win-Place #8. Exacta boxes 8-7 and 8-5.

Jeremy Plonk's All American Juvenile Picks:

Win 8-Jesse Lane
Place 5-Trace Dynasty
Show 7-My Southern Dynasty
Fourth 1-Overhauling

G1 All American Futurity
Ruidoso Downs Race 10
Post 7:18 pm ET / 5:18 pm MT

The 5-fastest qualifiers in trials held Aug. 18 & 19 at Ruidoso qualified.

1-MR SECRET GLORY (15-1): Notably from only heat on Day 1 of trials to qualify beyond 6th trial, making the final via trial #14 when the conditions were not as fast. Fourth-fastest Day 1 qualifier at 21.854. Runs a bit erratic/green and not as efficient as some others.

2-DASH FOR STONE (30-1): Fifth-fastest qualifier on Day 1 in 21.876 when chasing home Mr Secret Glory. Earned finals nod upon DQ of Heza Streakin Legacy. Enters on 4-race losing streak since debut victory.

3-BELIEVE ME IRENE (20-1): Third-fastest Day 1 qualifier at 21.843 in trial #6, a race that also produced finalist and fastest qualifier Shakem Bye Perry. Race benefitted some from 4 mph tailwind. Winless in 3 starts and looks to give 29yo Shae Cox her biggest training victory. One of 2 fillies in the final (Fly Baby Fly).

4-HES LIMITLESS (10-1): Despite a decided stumble at the start, his Day 1 trial #1 time of 21.816 stood up all day and wound up second-fastest. Trainer John Stinebaugh has won 2 AA Derbies, but seeks his first Futurity. Could give sire Corona Cartel a second AAF winner. Dam was 6th in '12 AAF final.

5-UPTOWN DYNASTY (5-2): Dynamite in local 2yo series, dead-heating for win in Ruidoso Futurity and finishing second in Rainbow Futurity. Only horse this year to qualify for all 3 finals. One of 2 qualifiers from trainer Wes Giles on Day 2 (also Bigg Daddy). Second-fastest time of 21.802 on Day 2 after breaking like a total pro. Giles was fourth in last year's AAF final with Apollitical Chad.

6-FLY BABY FLY (5-1): Fifth-fastest Day 2 qualifier at 21.902. One of two Day 2 qualifiers for trainer Jimmy Padgett and jockey Rodrigo Vallejo (also Hawkeye). Exceptional finisher will relish the 440 yards, she's a hulk ala Zenyatta for Thoroughbred fans. Sire One Famous Eagle has two AAF winners to his credit, including last year's 1-2 finishers. One of 2 fillies in the final (Believe Me Irene).

7-BIGG DADDY (9-2): Zia Futurity winner posted easily the fastest Day 2 qualifying time of 21.611 in trial #7. One of 2 qualifiers from trainer Wes Giles on Day 2 (also Uptown Dynasty). His 2 ¾-length win margin was second-biggest on Day 2 of trials. Giles was fourth in last year's AAF final with Apollitical Chad. Can lug out and be his own worst enemy at times. Jockey G.R. Carter is a 2-time All American Futurity winner and the sport's all-time leading rider.

8-HAWKEYE (7-2): Handily bested G1 Heritage Place Futurity runner-up in first trial of Day #2 and qualified third-fastest (21.807) that day. One of two Day 2 qualifiers for trainer Jimmy Padgett and jockey Rodrigo Vallejo (also Fly Baby Fly). Only 4 of 14 trials won by posts 1-3 that day. Sire One Dashing Eagle was an AAF winner.

9-HOTSTEPPER (8-1): 3-time All American Futurity-winning trainer Sleepy Gilbreath won this race in 1983 (On A High), 1990 (Refrigerator) and 2011 (Ochoa). Fourth-fastest qualifier on Day 2 (21.827), doing so in trial #10 (no other qualifier after trial #7). Only 4 of 14 trials won by posts 1-3 that day. Visually dominant despite mild late drift out, and did so against the stiffest headwind of any Day 2 qualifier. Sire One Famous Eagle has two AAF winners to his credit, including last year's 1-2 finishers.

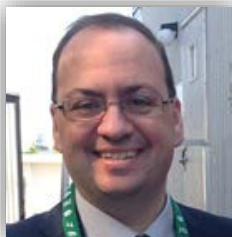

10-SHAKEM BYE PERRY (15-1): Fastest Day 1 qualifier at 21.664 in trial #6, a race that also produced finalist Believe Me Irene. Note that race had a 4 mph tailwind, the only Day 1 heat with a tailwind to produce finalists. The 1 ¼-length win margin in trial was second-largest on Day 1. $14k buy was just 1-for-6 before that breakout win that came virtually out of nowhere.
