- The players with the largest bankrolls after the final contest race will be declared the winners.

PLAYER BANKROLL

This is a 'real money' Handicapping Contest. In order to participate, this contest requires a $300 buy-in, per entry. Of each buy-in $200 will be used for a player's bankroll, while the remaining $100 is entry fee which becomes part of the prize pool. (100% of entry fees will be paid out as prizes). Players may compete online at www.xpressbet.com , www.TVG.com , www.NYRAbets.com (where not prohibited) and onsite at Canterbury Park.

Players will have a separate Contest account for each entry that they purchase. Maximum entries allowed is two per individual. Each Contest account will have a balance of $200 for each of the paid entries. This balance will be the player's initial bankroll.

To participate in the contest at www.xpressbet.com, follow instructions on the website. Players must have an Xpressbet account in good standing to play.

To participate in the contest through NYRAbets or TVG, entry fee and bankroll must be paid through Canterburypark.com. Players have a TVG or NYRAbets account and must not be prohibited to play. Bankroll will be transferred to Contest account at specified ADW.

New York residents are prohibited from playing in this event through NYRAbets.com .

Entry at Canterbury Park: see below.

At the conclusion of the contest, any dollar amount remaining within the Xpressbet Contest account remains the property of the player. Xpressbet will transfer funds from the Contest account back to the player's primary Xpressbet account at the conclusion of the contest.

TVG and NYRAbets will credit remaining balances to primary accounts at the conclusion of the contest.

Players onsite at Canterbury Park must cash out their contest account balance at tournament conclusion.

PRIZES

One winner for each 30 entries, determined by ranked bankrolls at the conclusion of the contest, will receive a $3,000 entry to the Sept. 16, 2021 Canterbury Park BCBC Big Ten Handicapping Contest that guarantees 10 BCBC berths and two NHC berths.

In the event of a tie for any position, the most winning win wagers will determine order of prize selection.

Entry fees over the cost of the Big Ten Contest entry will be paid to the next largest bankroll. For example, if there are 50 entries, there is one Big Ten entry winner and $2,000 will be paid to the entrant with the second largest bankroll. If there are 65 entries, two Big Ten entries are awarded and $500 is paid to the third largest bankroll, and so on.

There is no fee to become a member and it can be done simultaneously with contest entry.

OTHER RULES

Should an entry in this contest fail to meet the above-mentioned requirements, that entry may be disqualified from the contest, making the entry ineligible to win prizes.

Any situation involving a late scratch where it is deemed the players were not given sufficient time to adjust their betting will be handled on a case-by-case basis by contest officials.

In the unlikely event of a cancellation of a race card, Tournament Officials reserve the right to substitute races from another racetrack or cancel the tournament.

It is the player's responsibility to meet the wagering requirements listed above. Contest officials will make the decision on disqualification in the event of a rule violation and all decisions are final. Entry fees will not be refunded in the event of a disqualification.

Players must place all wagers personally. No person shall directly or indirectly act as an intermediary, transmitter or agent in placing wagers for the player. Additionally, collusion amongst players may serve as grounds for disqualification.

All tournaments wagers must be made through the temporary contest accounts created by Xpressbet, TVG, NYRabets or Canterbury Park.

There are no caps on payoffs, but payoffs which trigger IRS withholdings could result in a tax withholding situation. If that occurs the scoring system will give the player credit for the full amount of the wager, but the player bankroll only will be an amount net of the IRS withholding.

Contest standings will be based off of each player's bankroll on their official contest entry. Standings will rank all bankrolls based off of dollar value from largest to smallest, with first place being the largest bankroll and last place being the smallest bankroll.

Current standings will be posted after every race, or as soon as the information is available.

In the event of electronic failure, including transmitting of pools, failure of phone lines, and wagering machine malfunction, or other unforeseen technical problems, wagers will be treated according to the Minnesota Racing Commission rules.

HORSE OWNERSHIP & WAGERING ON A COMPETING HORSE

If a player has an ownership or other interest in any horses running in any of the contest races, or holds a pari-mutuel license in any jurisdiction, then all involvements and licenses must be fully disclosed to contest officials prior to the start of the contest. Failure to disclose any ownership interest or license can result in disqualification. Trainers, owners or any other player with another interest can bet that race, but must bet their horse to WIN in a WPS pool wager or "ON TOP ONLY" when wager in the Exacta or Trifecta pool, and must 'single' the horse in a Double wager, assuming those bet types are eligible in the contest. Players needing to disclose information must do so by emailing: cbypark@canterburypark.com prior to the start of the contest.

Cancellation of tournament

Canterbury Park management reserves the right to cancel the tournament for any reason at any time.

Canterbury Park assumes no liability for any unforeseen occurrence during the tournament.

Canterbury Park reserves the right to interpret all questions and conditions regarding the tournament, without claim for damages or recourse of any kind. All questions regarding the tournament, which are not specifically listed under these rules will be decided by Canterbury Management. Those decisions will be final.
